

From Editor's Desk

Dear Readers, Greetings!

Medical field has become more competitive and ever challenging. All over the country there are a lot of new colleges and thousands of medical students. Survival fittest becomes our ultimate goal in every medical specialty. How to overcome this kind of stress and challenging lifestyle. Learning the art of converting the rare cases to publications may be helpful to all beginners. Only people from academic institutions are interested in publications. Why aren't the general practitioners? If your articles are getting published, your morality will change. I wholeheartedly congratulate all researchers and authors for being instrumental in bringing out innovative topics. Through your focus in dermatology, cosmetology, aesthetic surgery, innovative therapeutic approaches with us. Emerging pediatric dermatology, geriatric dermatology, dermato-surgery, newer advances in the dermatology therapeutics need to be addressed. In IJCED you can publish under various categories: Personal view, review articles, original papers, professional papers, preliminary reports, and reviews of scientific meetings and book reviews.

All our reviewers, editorial team and publication section of the innovative team are the pillars of this successful peer reviewed journal. Very happy to see the number of downloads, citations quoting this prestigious journal. I congratulate the innovative publications team for their tireless efforts in quick processing and faster communication with the authors and reviewers and also for bringing out such innovative journals in the field of dermatology and its sub specialities.

Happy reading.
